Foreword

To The Students:

The Yearbook staff takes pride in presenting to its fellow students the '66 Lepanto. This year's annual represents the combined efforts of many students working as a team to publish a book that will serve as a remembrance of the '65-'66 school year at Nolan. From a large stack of pictures and information on everyone and everything we compile a visual record of all the events from the past year.

Once the excitement and confusion of the beginning of a new school year wears down, activities at Nolan begin to roll. Socially, Nolan A-Go-Go proves to be the largest attended dance ever held. Spiritually, the first Concelebrated Mass is offered. Homecoming Week inspires everyone with the traditional Nolan spirit. Christmas comes and goes as we move nearer midterm exams. The Purple Eye, another highly successful dance, puts everyone back in the swing of things after exams. The gaiety of Mardi Gras and the solemnity of Lent advances the school year into mid-April. The last weeks of school see some of the finest productions by Nolan students, including the Variety Show and the superb presentation of Fine Arts Week. Graduation climaxes the school year as 151 Seniors receive their diplomas.

Nolan's athletes, backed by their loyal Viking crowds, capture many honors this year. In football, an enthusiastic throng of fans turn out to see Nolan win its first district game and to witness the All-American style of Tom Cowan. Basketball season sees Nolan capture the District title and advance to the state playoffs in San Antonio. All-District honors are earned by three of Nolan's baseball players. At the District Track Meet, Nolan's Ric Potter is named the Most Valuable Athlete. The District Golf title also is won by the Viking Golf team. They then advance to state where they place third and Senior Ernie Klarich wins the state medalist trophy.

Many new clubs emerge at Nolan to satisfy the varying interests of the students. The Camera and Radio Clubs encourage technical skills. Folksong lovers meet to form the Hootenanny Club. A local chapter of the Pan American Student Forum is created to study the culture of our neighbors to the South.

This is just a brief review of some of the events and people covered in this year's annual. We hope that as you browse through your '66 Lepanto, it will always revive within you the sense of loyalty you feel for Nolan High School.

Sincerely,

Larry Johnson

Lepanto derives its name from the battle at which the Christian army under the leadership of Don Juan of Austria defeated the Moslem forces threatening Christendom. From this battle originated the feast of Our Lady of Victory, the patronal feast of Nolan.

National Forensic League

Members Place High in Many Tournaments

The research, rehearsing, and many other details of preparation for speech tournaments make the N. F. L. a club for "working" people. Its members work for their own improvement in the fields of debate, oratory, and dramatics, The total membership of the club reaches an all time high this year as the under classmen find the competition of debate and individual events challenging, educative, and plain fun. The club is especially proud of Bill Parker who, placing first in the district tournament, attends the National Tournament in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Students Active in Apostolic Works

Missi and CCD rank high among the service clubs as the members give their time and efforts to the service of their fellowman. A Christmas party and an Easter egg hunt for the children at the Grant Street Mission are highlights of Missi activities. A very important activity is that of the tutoring project in which many Nolan students give hours to help younger children with their lessons. Members of the CCD respond to the call of the church by teaching catechism at Grant Street Mission.

Pan American Student Forum

Culture of Hispanic America Attracts Student Attention

A local chapter of P. A. S. F. is created at Nolan. This club encourages respect of all American nationalities and an understanding of them based on a more thorough knowledge and an appreciation of the peoples of the Western Hemisphere. The members raise money by holding bake sales and car washes, and send this money to aid the efforts of the Texas Partners for the Alliance in Peru.

Generous Students Assist Administration

Nolan students have always been well known for their service activities. This year even more areas are open to service-minded students.

Senior boys are now trusted with the responsibility of presiding over study halls, pep rallies, and lunch periods, through the new senior official program. The officials are selected by the faculty from a group of volunteers.

Junior and senior girls are now able to aid needy students to attend Nolan on scholarships through the summer secretary program. The girls donate their salaries earned by summer work in the school office to a scholarship fund.

The Usherettes are another new service organization at Nolan, set up by the Student Council to usher at all school functions.

The Grant Street Program has entered its second year at Nolan. Interested girls and boys donate one or two afternoons a week to teach religion, reading, or math to underprivileged children at the mission center.

Other service activities include volunteer work at St. Joseph's Hospital and in the Nolan Library.

"500 Hours" Volunteers at ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL: Rosemary Childress, Kay Cosgrove, Mary Lou Meyer.

USHERETTES: Bette Coleman, Debbie Henegan, Tina O'Reilly, Kathy Holler, Barbara Meyer, Mary Ellen Cross.

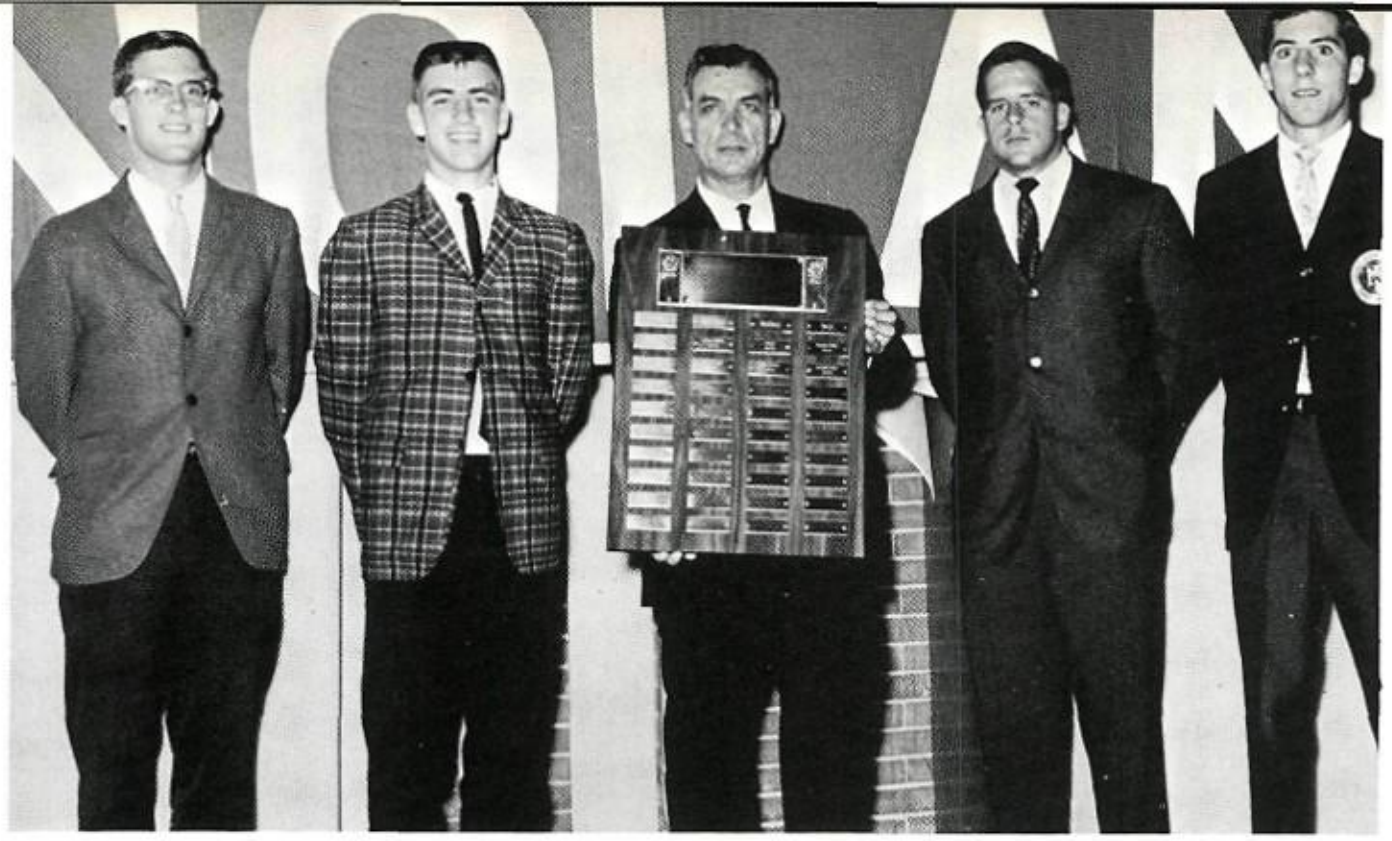
Parents and Faculty Cooperate in Students' Total Development

President Scott Grant opens the monthly meeting of the Home and School.

Through this organization parents can give the students and faculty of the school the interest, encouragement, and financial aid necessary for success in their endeavors. Through interesting and informative programs the parents learn the place of youth in society and how the parents can best aid their children to achieve their proper place. Nolan is deeply indebted to the Home and School and will be throughout the future.

Did you ever see such hams?



Mrs. Mike Barbolla displays the plaque honoring the outstanding athletes of the year; Ric Potter, track; Mike Thompson, basketball, John Johnson, baseball and Buz Ziegler, football.

Viking Sports Club

Throughout the year the Viking Sports Club backs Nolan's athletic endeavors with a fine spirit of confidence and encouragement. By sponsoring the annual Sports Banquet, this organization pays high tribute to Nolan athletes. The club also sponsors the new Nolan Bus which replaces the Golden Goose.

O. E. "Doc" Hayes of S. M. U. is the main speaker at the Sports Award Banquet.

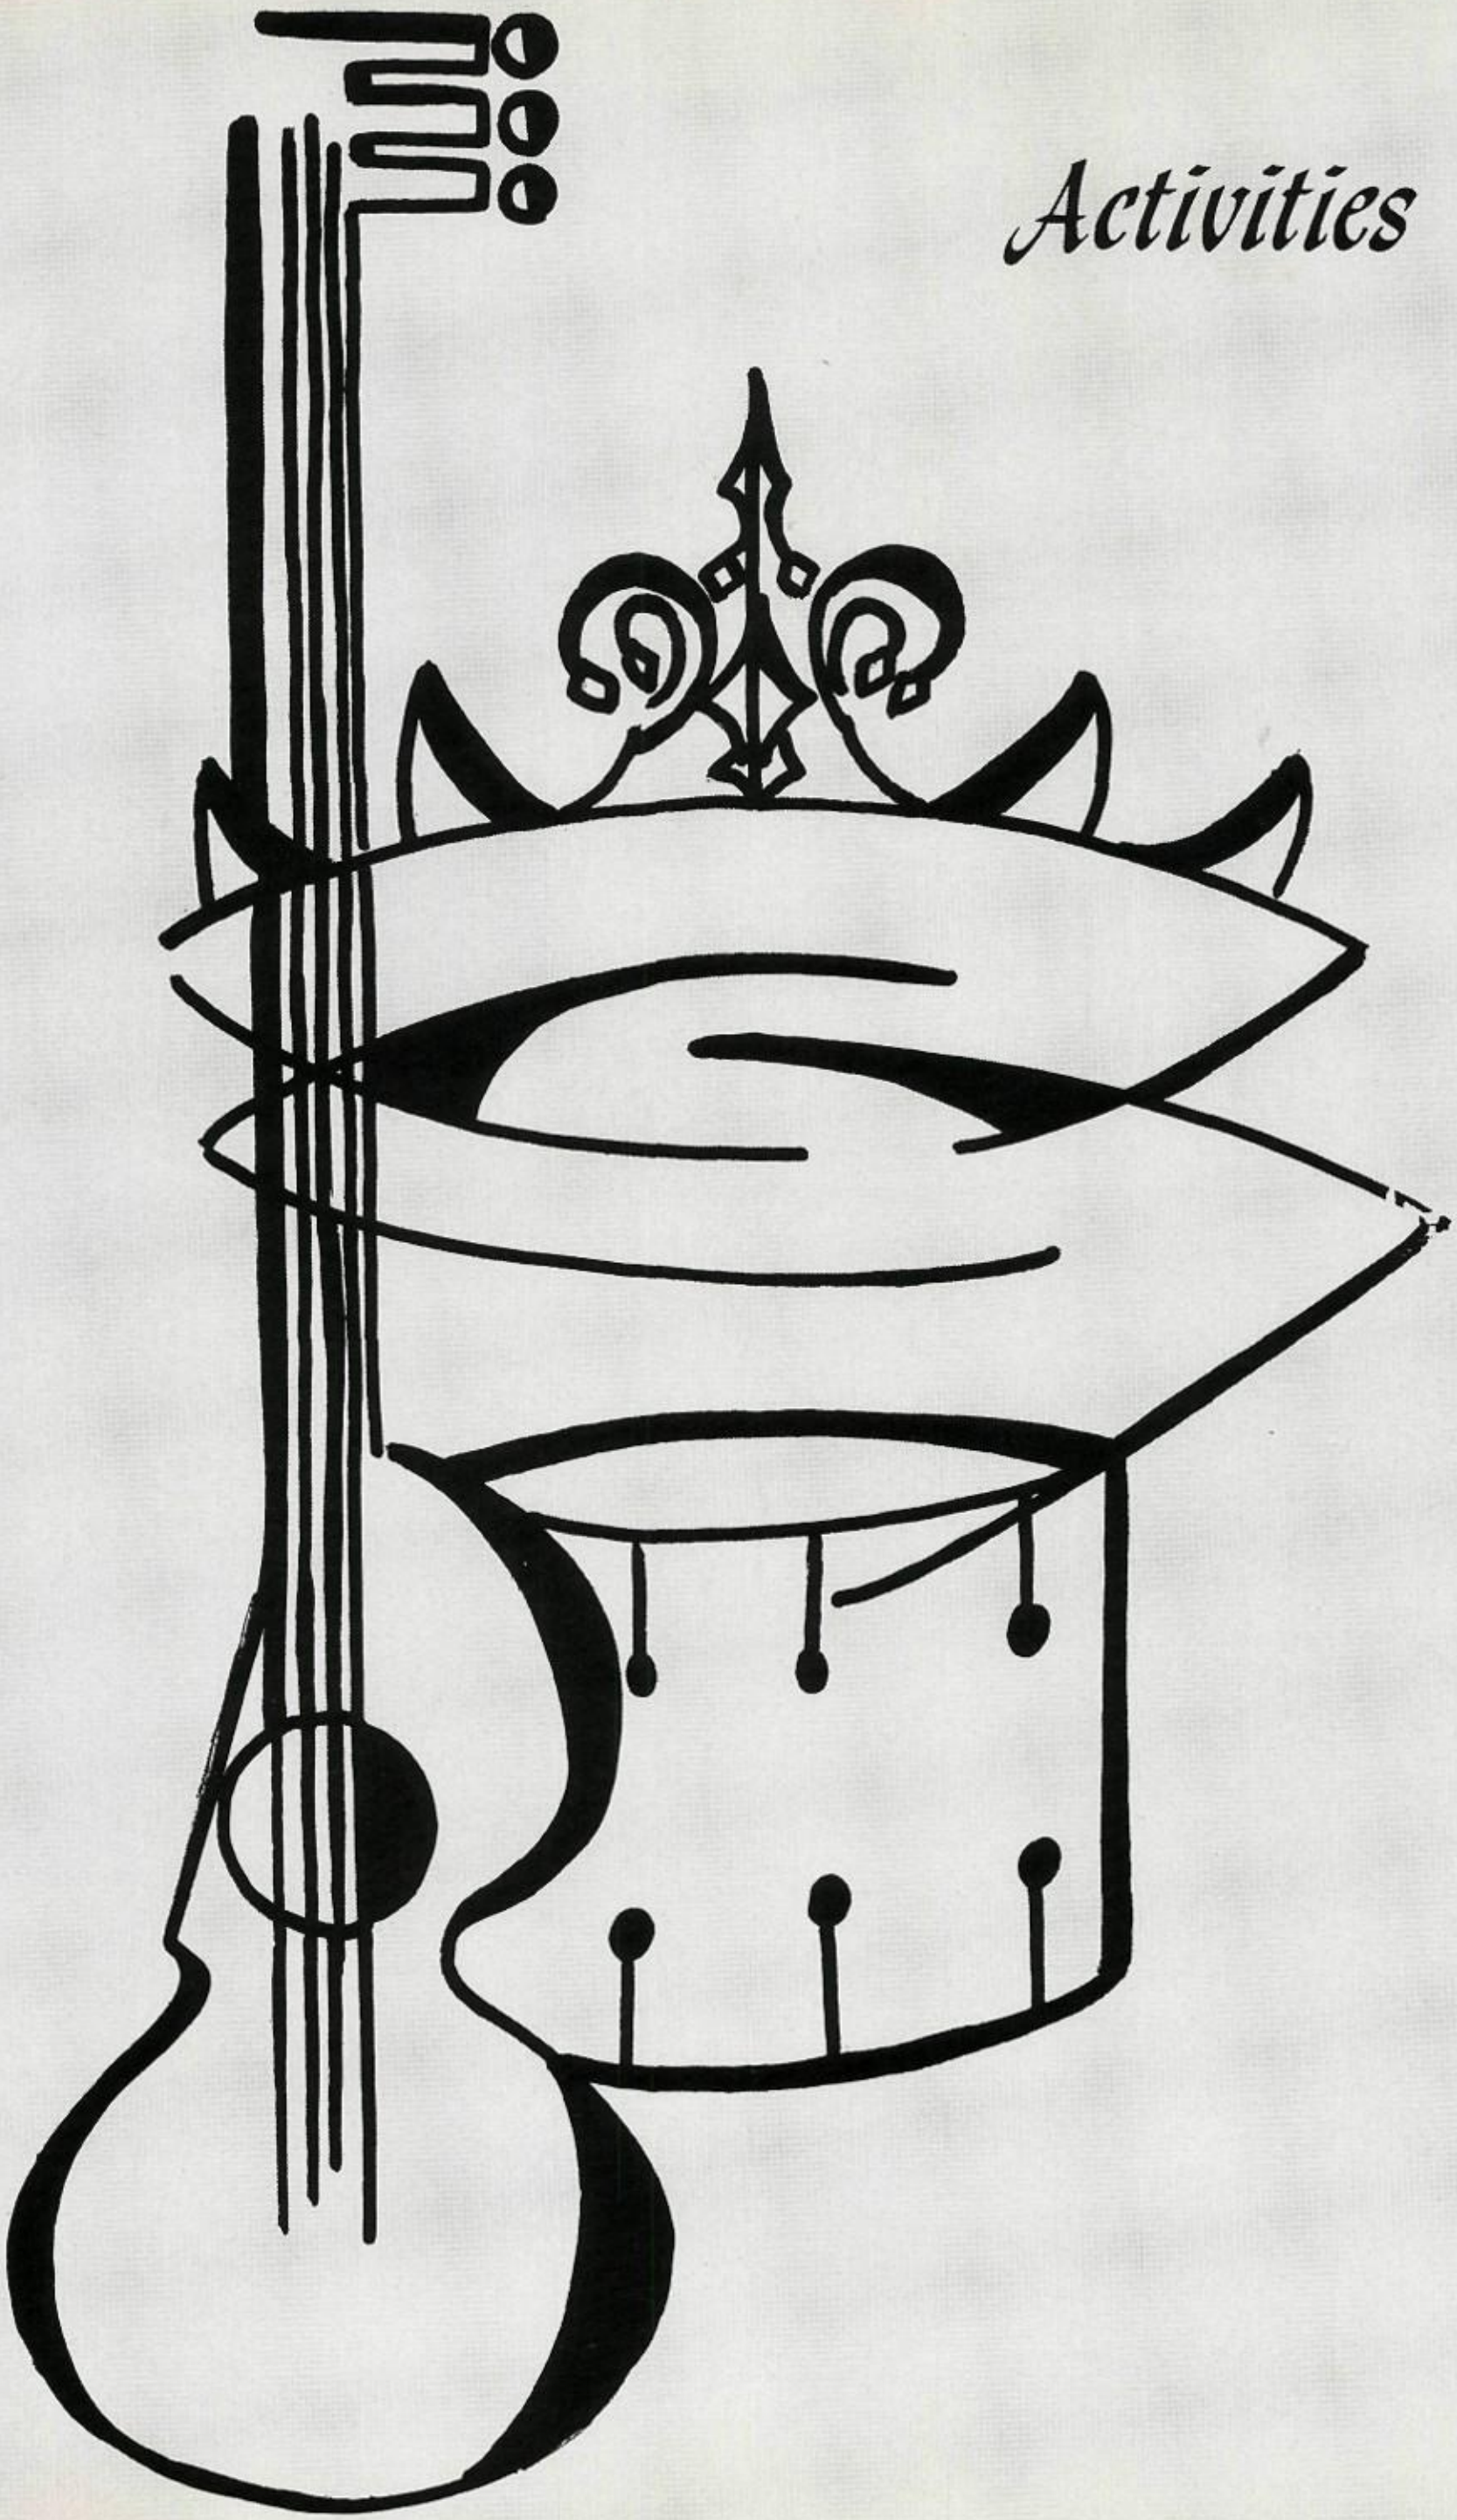
Activities



Assemblies Recognize Honor Students

The administration emphasizes academic excellence as an important goal for the students. In order to encourage highest standards, students who maintain an average between 2.8 and 4.0 receive recognition at the end of each quarter. Highest ranking students are elected to membership in the National Honor Society.

Sister Eleanor presents honor cards at the conclusion of each quarter.

Pat Bell receives the N. H. S. pen from Sister Eleanor.

N. H. S. Vice-President Tony Alholm takes the oath of office as President Larry Johnson and Secretary Donna Miller wait for their turn.

The group listens attentively as the honors are read.

Social Season Opens With Nolan A-Go-Go

In order to provide for the social interests of the students, the Student Council sponsors various dances during the year. Nolan A-Go-Go rocks the hallowed halls with the music of the Nomads, a-go-go dancers, and a capacity crowd of swingin' students.

Looks like the whole student body showed up for this one.

A-Go-Go Pat!

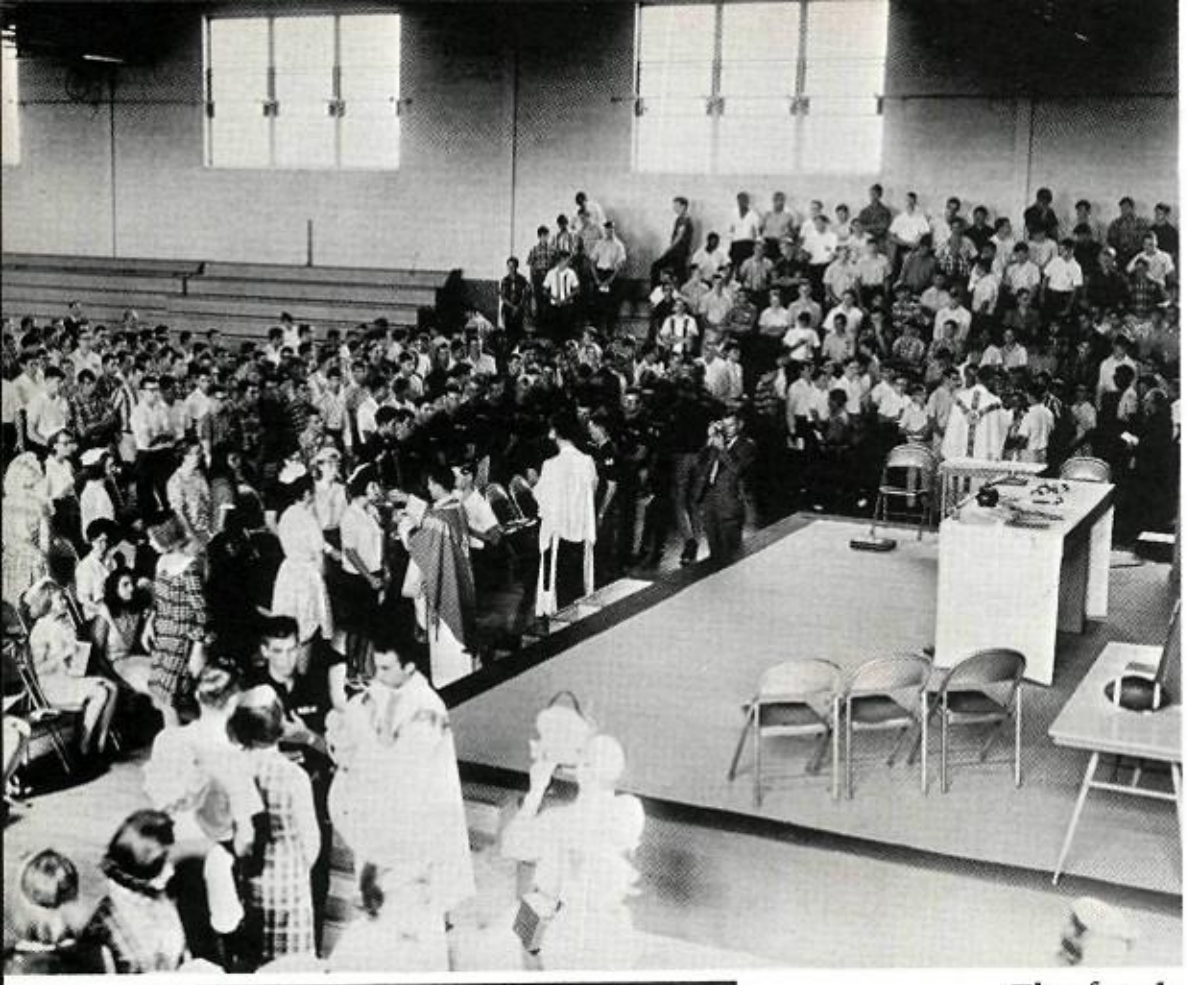
Faculty and Students Attend Special Mass



The Mass of the Holy Spirit dedicates the various phases of student activities to the service of God. Footballs, cheerleaders' megaphones, and school books are presented during the Offertory Procession while the hymns of the Mass are sung in folk song fashion. The petition of the Mass is to ask God's blessing on all the activities of the coming school year.

Sister Mary Sharon, Mrs. Sivek and Mrs. Scanlan bring their gifts to the altar at the offertory.

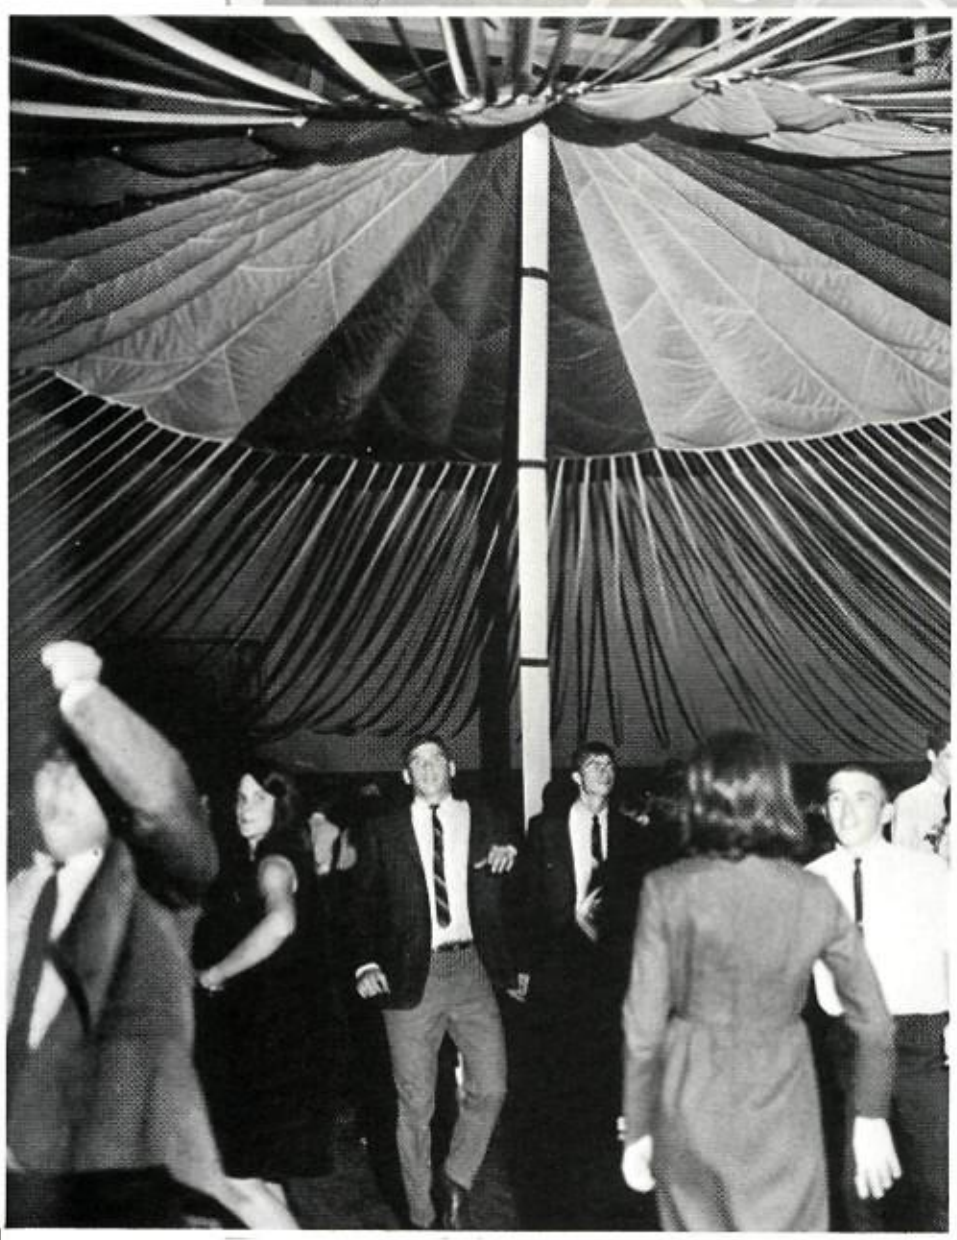
The faculty and students receive Holy Communion from one of the three priests concelebrating at the Mass of the Holy Spirit.

Father Hazel, Father Taylor and Father Schorp participate in the first concelebrated Mass at Nolan.

Members of the Choral Club and Hootenanny Club lead the singing.

Students Swing Under the Big Top

Jack and the Rippers provide the swinging entertainment.



Students dance in the center under a huge circus tent as the Elephant Walk highlights the activities of October. A popcorn booth, senior circus clowns, floating balloons, and a giant teddy bear as the door prize, complete the circus theme of the dance. The Student Council brings one of its most unique ideas to successful completion as students throughly enjoy the evening.

Homecoming Week

The traditional Homecoming Festivities welcome Nolan exes as they return to cheer their Alma Mater and enjoy the dance held in their honor. School spirit reaches its peak during the week as the homerooms of the girls' division create elaborate Spirit Boards and the entire student body unites to cheer for the Vikings at a roof-raising pep rally. The Homecoming Game and presentation of the Homecoming Court at half-time climax the exciting week.

Pat Bell, Mike Connolly and Larry Morton, the Chalons, provide music for an after-the-pep-rally sock-hop.

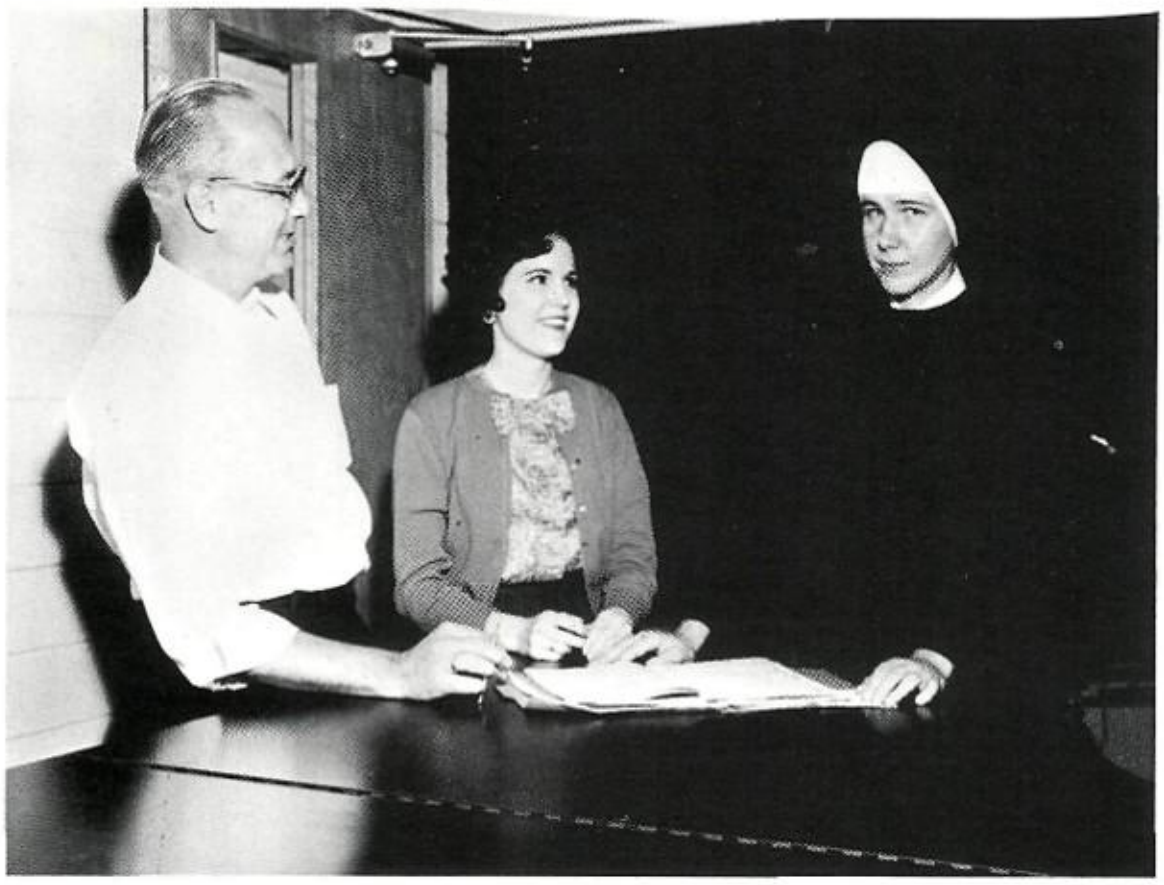
Ballet Group and Chorus Presents "Nutcracker Suite"



Students capture the magic, fairy-tale legend of Christmas as they present the production of "The Nutcracker Suite" by Tchaikovsky.

The program's three faculty moderators confer on a production problem. Brother Charles Rahe advises the scenery crew, Mrs. Louis Poth assists the dancers, and Sister Jane Marie coordinates the music for the program.

Christmas Inspires Spirit of Giving

Christmas is a time of generous giving at Nolan. Amid thoughts of their own Christmas fun, the students find time to pack boxes to send overseas, collect food and clothing for the needy, or entertain underprivileged children.

The senior girls travel to Denton to entertain the children at The State School for the Retarded. The senior boys lead C corridor in the annual food drive.

The freshman girls pack boxes for soldiers in Viet Nam, through the Gift Lift.

Other classes give parties for the Grant Street Mission or supply boxes of food and clothing for needy families.

N. F. L. Sponsors Third Annual Trophy Debate

Sister Mary Jude, N. F. L. moderator, wishes the teams good luck as the debate begins.

Steve Maddux begins his attack but his partner Bob McConnell doesn't seem to agree with him.

You won't get away with that one, buddy!

In the Trophy Debate, Nolan's two highest ranking debate teams compete for the honored position of the school's top debaters.

Judy Dornblaser accepts her winner's trophy from Sister Eleanor.

Gleeful Bill Parker is the other member of the winning team.

Seniors Sponsor Variety Show

The Seniors stage a riotous variety show including exotic singing groups, swinging combos, comedy routines, overgrown dwarfs, and a dashing M. C. Students, faculty, and parents have the time of their lives but no one enjoys it more than the stars of the show.

Administration and Faculty Recognize Honor Students

On April 20th, Nolan honors in a special program, students who maintain a 3.2 scholastic average or above for three quarters, and a conduct rating of 3.0 with no grade below a 3. This year nine seniors receive letters for the fourth straight year.

Mr. Robert Dupree, vice-president and Chairman of the board of the Continental National Bank, gave the keynote address. Father John Meyers, diocesan Superintendent of Schools, presents the awards.

Parents follow the program with pride in the students' achievements.

Prom Honors Seniors

The crowning of Prom Queen Sandra Walton, the beat of the Barons, and the "Three Coins in a Fountain" atmosphere highlight the 1966 Junior-Senior Prom. A large crowd in formal finery, turn out, despite the rain, to the Western Hills Four Seasons' Ballroom. Andree Shaw and Mike Grant head the Junior Prom Committee which plans the event to honor the seniors.

And I thought he was kidding when he said he had to study for a test.

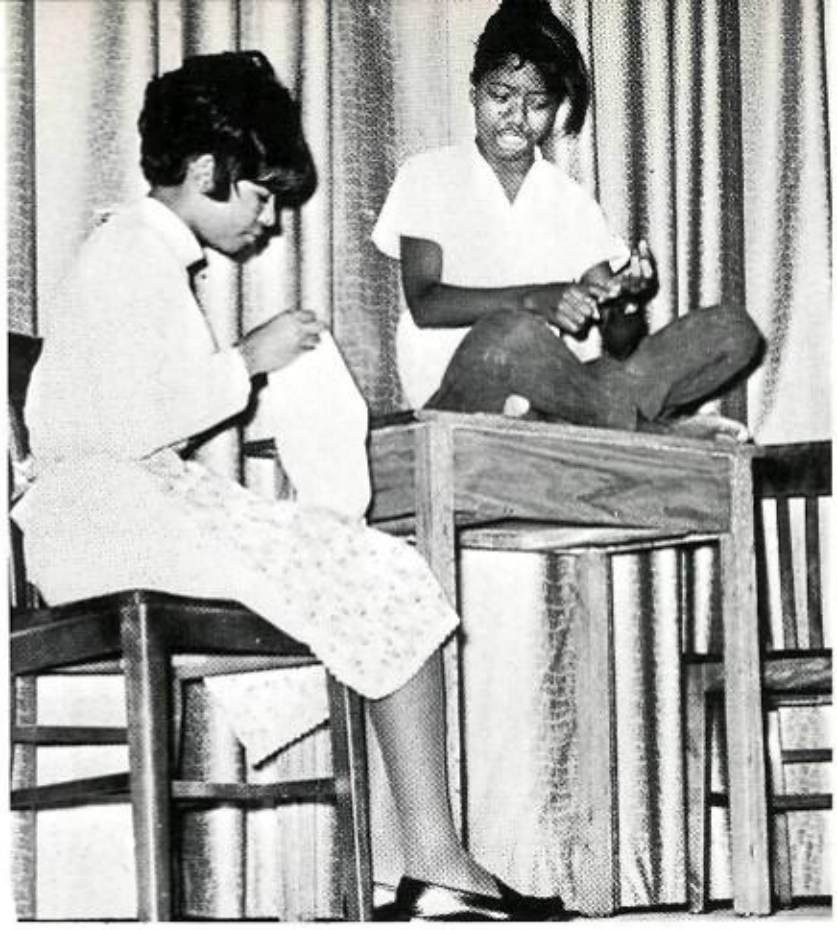
Nolan Holds Second Annual Fine Arts Week

Nolan Student Council proudly presents its Fine Arts Week, 1966. This week salutes and pays tribute to the fine arts, those products of the communion between man's spirit and the inner being of things.

Mr. Frank C. Hughes, Dean of Fine Arts, Professor of Music at Texas Christian University, gives the introductory address to the student body on Monday, April 25. On Tuesday, Nolan Choral Club presents "The Sound of Music" to demonstrate the music from the earliest church services to that of modern Broadway. On Wednesday, Hollywood comes to Nolan in a special viewing of "On the Waterfront" starring Marlon Brando. Thursday is N.F.L. day with special assemblies to hear talented members of the League. The hilarious "You Can't Take It With You" occupies Saturday and Sunday nights. During the week, students view the art work of Nolan and T.C.U. students.

"..and then this dove flies into the kitchen."

Sister Jane Marie and the choral acknowledges the applause after a number.



Evelyn Washington and Elevene McClellan give their prize-winning cutting from "Member of the Wedding" at the N. F. L. assembly

"..but I like Oreos!"

David Smith, Patti O'Kane, and Sue Quinn discuss one of the art pieces on exhibit in the corridors

Students flock to the box office to view "On the Waterfront"

Guess what, folks?

"He's got enough fireworks down there to blow up the whole state!"

Seniors Produce "You Can't Take It With You"

Climaxing Fine Arts Week is the production of the senior sponsored play "You can't take it with you" by Moss Hart and George Kauffman. Under the patient direction of Brother Charles Rahe, eighteen seniors and one junior romp through three acts of wild mixups and hilarious situations. Romance and youth win out in the end as Alice is united to Tony despite the crazy antics of the family.

"Are you feeling tired, tense, irritable?"

My mother told me there'd be days like this.

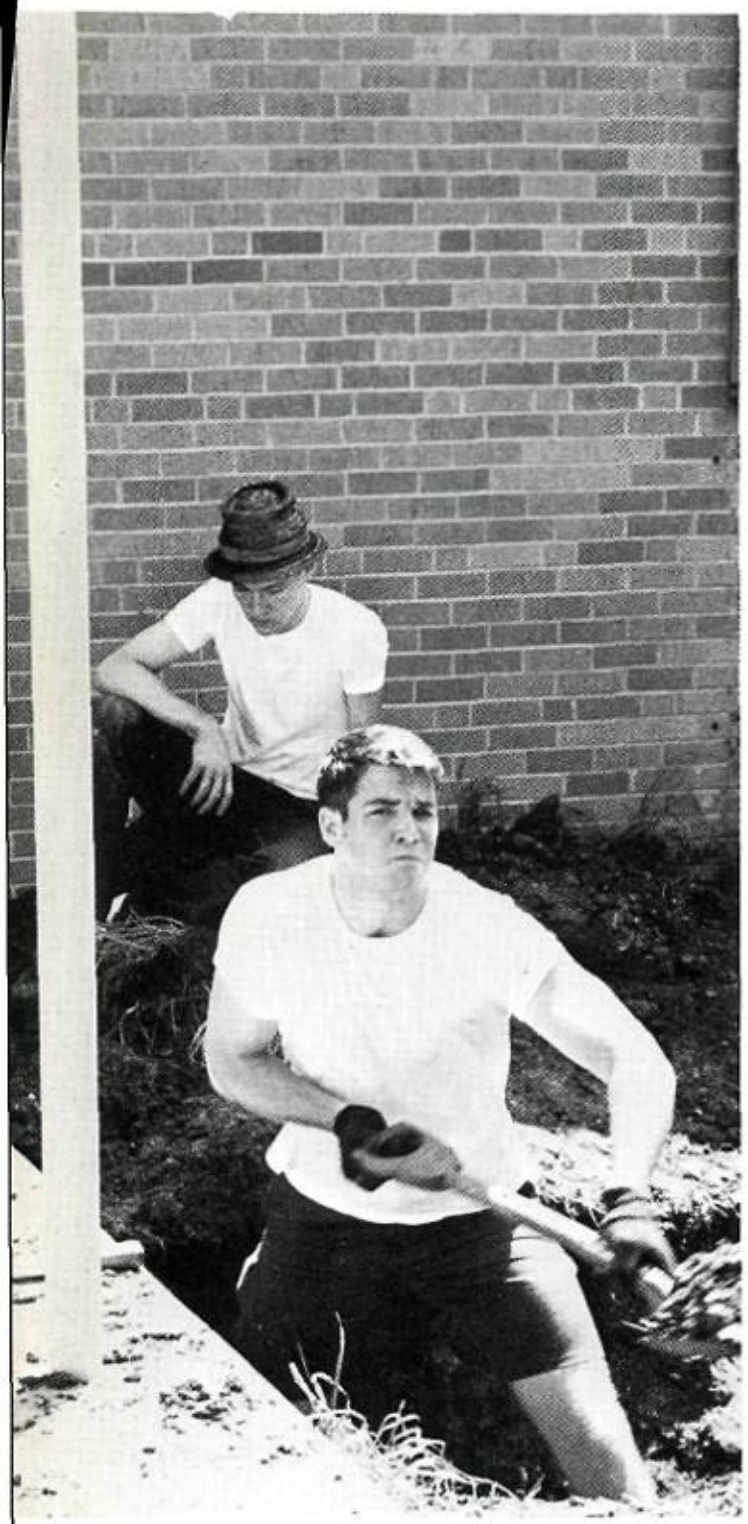
Students Go All Out to Beautify School Campus

This year Nolan students take upon themselves the responsibility of beautifying the campus. The seniors start work on a future student lounge by laying drainage pipes and completing the concrete area between C corridor and the gym. The juniors assumed care of the courtyard between A and B corridors. The entire area is dug up and new grass is planted. A symmetrical design of ground covers completes the courtyard.

The sophomore class decides to further beautify the recently laid tennis courts. They plan to arrange shrubbery and trees around the area.



Wait until I get my hands on the guy that signed me up for this.

Nolan Takes Second in State

The Nolan '66 basketball team, through constant effort and sportsmanlike teamwork, not only wins district but also takes first runner-up position in the state play-offs. Thanks to the efforts of Nolan's all-state players Ed Fonner and Mike Thompson and all district player Sam Rodriquiz, Nolan succeeded in winning six straight games in district play.

District play is not their only area of success however. Nolan also takes second place in the Brewer Tournament and first in the Knights of Columbus Tournament at Jesuit High School.

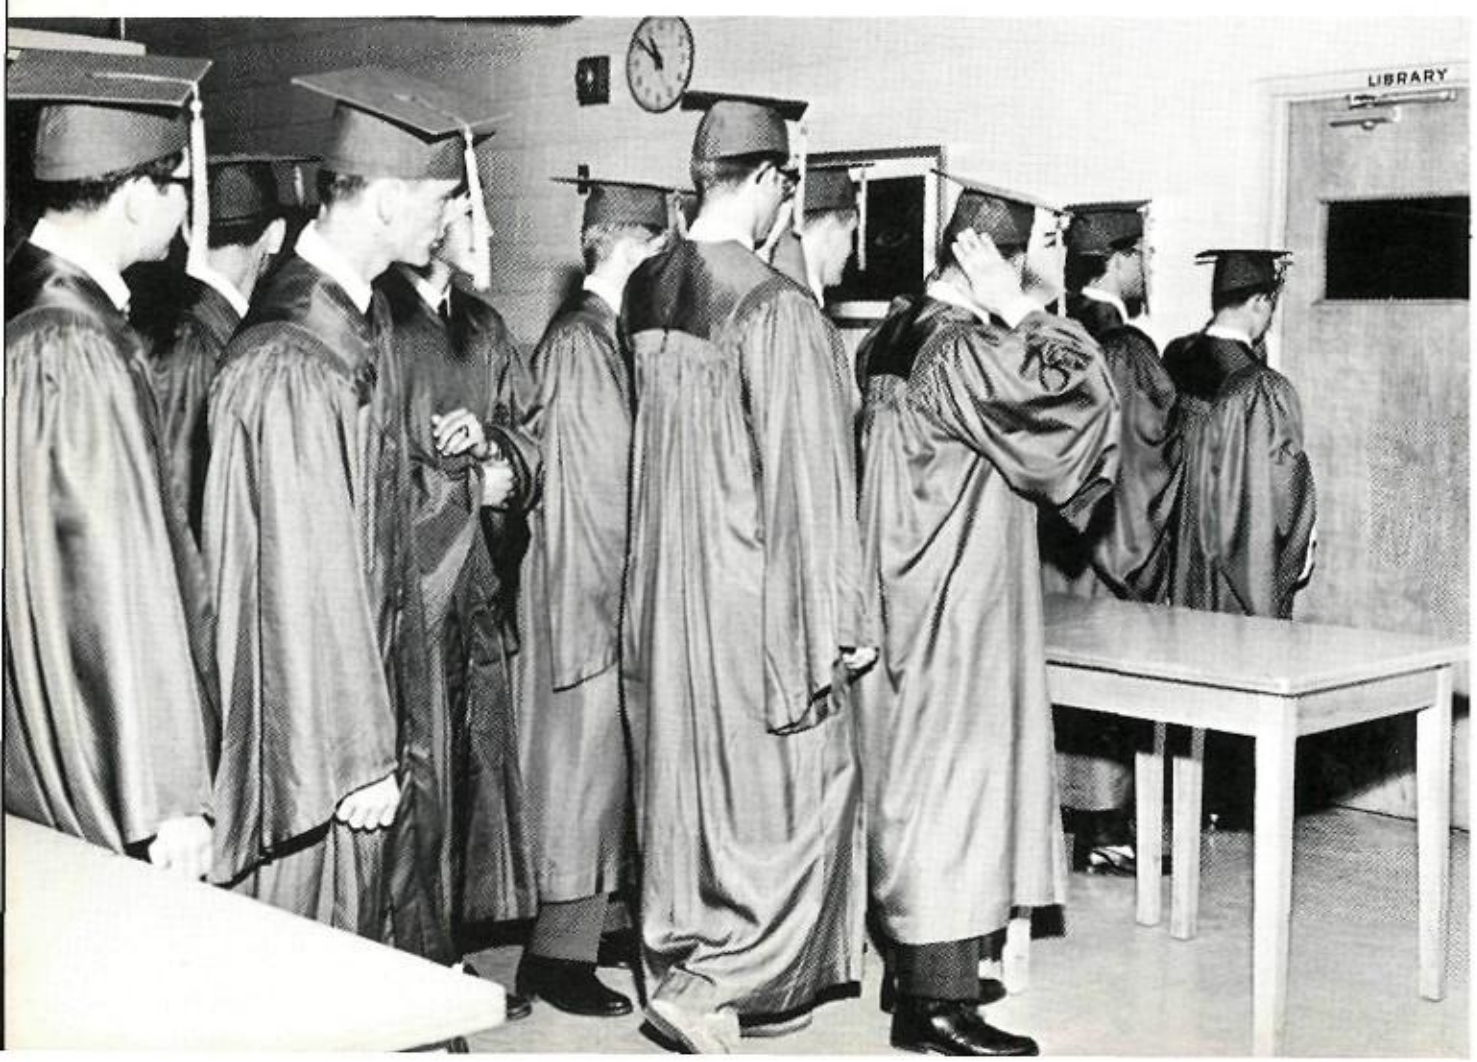
Special Convocation Honors Graduates

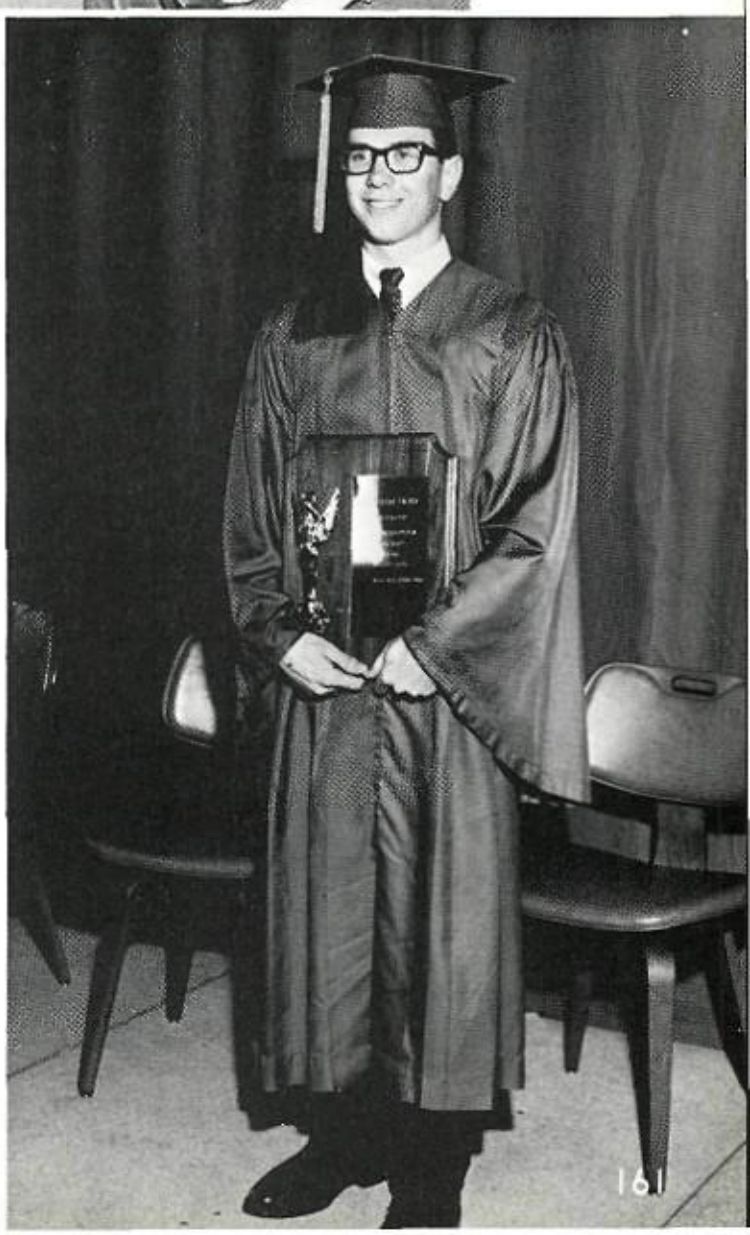


Any minute now that door is going to open.....

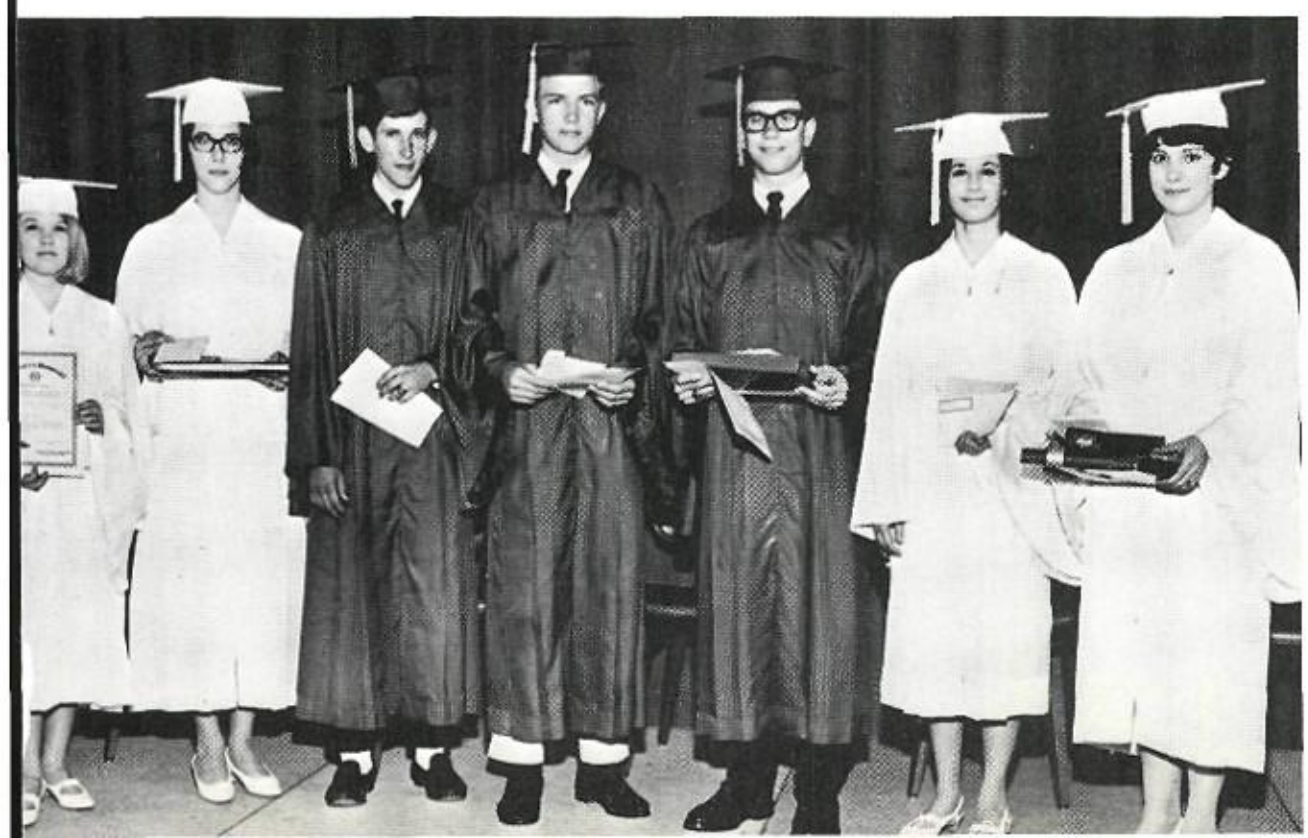
On May 20 the faculty and student body honored the graduates of 1966 at a special convocation in the gym. To the traditional tune of Pomp and Circumstance, the seniors make their formal entrance. Brother Pierre is Master of Ceremonies of the program during which he announces the awards and scholarships won by individual seniors. Carol Neilon, highest ranking girl gives the welcome address. Ken Fenoglio, highest ranking boy gives the closing address. Of special note is the acceptance of the National Merit Scholarship by Carol Neilon who will attend Rice University.

Judy Dornblaser receives a Voice of Democracy Award from a member of the Veterans of Foreign War.

Chaminade Award winner, Ken Fenoglio.



SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS: Peggy Magner, Judy Dornblaser, Frank Kuban, Larry Johnson, Ken Fenoglio, Donna Rappich, and Carol Neilon.



Baccalaureate Mass Honors Seniors

Very Rev. Msgr. W. J. McCoey, pastor of St. Johns Parish offers the Baccalaureate Mass for the graduates on Sunday, May 22. After Mass a buffet breakfast is served to the seniors and their guests.
